

Towards Open and Accountable Institutions in Albania ActionSEE 2016-2019

The Action SEE initiative aims to raise public awareness on corruption, transparency, the rule of law and good governance by facilitating and establishing strategic cooperation between civil society organizations in the region.

This initiative provides a platform for dialogue between relevant decision-making stakeholders as well as a tool for assessing the degree to which state institutions respect the principles and standards of open government (openness index).

MJAFT! Movement has contributed to a 4-year joint effort towards greater institutional openness in the Western Balkans by analysing and advocating transparent and accountable institutions in Albania.

Analyzed 83 institutions and processed 4'162 data units each year.

Developed 8 papers on annual institutional openness of parliament, Prime minister's Office, Local self-government units and judiciary power in Albania.

Developed more than 30 recommendations per each year for institutional openness in areas of transparency, accessibility, integrity and efficiency, with concrete action steps on how institutions could endorse these principles.

Organised consultative meetings and briefings with representatives from the Serbian Parliament, Government and other relevant domestic and international stakeholders.

Analysed the role of the media in supporting local and national civic initiatives for open and accountable governance.

Supported 5 civil society organizations: Qëndresa Qytetare, New Vision, Social Contract Institute, People in Focus, European Youth Activism.

Increased capacities of civil society initiatives to develop and manage projects, advocate, plan a media strategy, empower people and communicate with social media.
